This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 27th April, 2020. It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Clonenagh NS' admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school:

Clonenagh NS is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of The Bishop of Cashel, Ferns and Ossory. "Church of Ireland/Anglican" ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and the Divine. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican tradition, the Church of Ireland School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Clonenagh NS shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school

Vision and Mission Statement

Our vision of Clonenagh National School is of a safe and happy place where each child is nurtured and valued in an atmosphere of fairness, tolerance and respect.

Our school promotes the holistic development of each child so that he or she may realise his/her potential as a unique individual.

We aim to foster the Christian values of respect, honesty, courtesy, responsibility, tolerance and consideration for others.

We endeavour to enable each child to develop his/her skills, through access to the Revised Curriculum, to the best of his ability in a safe and happy environment.

We cherish and foster positive, co-operative relationships between teachers, staff, pupils, parents and the wider community.

We value and encourage good parental communication and involvement, based on mutual trust and understanding.

Our ASD class aims to offer an autism specific learning environment within a mainstream co educational national school. This setting facilitates optimum inclusion as part of the school community with access to mainstream activities as appropriate. We, in Clonenagh NS, want to give the highest quality of education to our children. We want the individual to grow to his/her full potential. Our aim is that this education will prepare each child for life to the best of his/her ability. We recognise and value the role of parents as the primary educator of their children. Together we can provide the skills for a loving approach to learning. We take an eclectic approach to teaching our pupils. We don't subscribe exclusively to any one approach to the education of children with Autism. However, we employ an ethos that is based upon the TEACCH method.
